DUHACSEK PARK MASTER PLAN

Review of and discussion on the Duhacsek Park planning update from Fort Bend County Precinct 4.

Recommended Action:

Review and discuss the Duhacsek Park planning update from Fort Bend County Precinct 4.

Executive Summary:

Duhacsek Park is a City-owned park that is leased to Fort Bend County for park purposes. Through this partnership, the County is responsible for the planning, development, operation, and maintenance of the park, while the City retains ownership of the property.

Fort Bend County has been conducting outreach and engagement efforts to gather community input regarding the future of Duhacsek Park. Through meetings, stakeholder discussions, and public feedback opportunities, residents have shared their priorities, concerns, and ideas for the park's development and long-term use.

County representatives have indicated that meaningful progress has been made in evaluating community input and identifying opportunities to enhance the park in a manner that reflects community needs and interests. Representatives from Fort Bend County Commissioner McCoy's Office and KCI Engineering staff will provide City Council an update on the engagement process, key findings, and the County's direction and next steps for Duhacsek Park.
